DETAILED ACTION

Amendment/Response to Ex Parte Quayle Action received on November 06, 2006 has been acknowledged.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. Claims 1, 2, 4, 9, 10, 12, 17, 18, 20 and 25-27 are allowed.
- 2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior art of record, Brooks, discloses an image data drived from the imaging device that is utilized to perform machine character recognition to ascertain the courtesy amount on the documents being processed. Brooks also discloses an enhancer, which is used to eliminate unnecessary background information and to make the pertinent data stand out from the background information. Brooks also discloses that for each individual number of courtesy amount read, there is an associated number developed to indicate the confidence level associated with that number read. Brooks also discloses MICR and OCR readers. Brooks also discloses that the document is direct through the path within an action window to permit an operator to perform corrective action on the document via conventional data entry procedures.

However, Brooks fails to teach forwarding at least one of the stored image and the document when the stored data field has the error but no include routing information. Brooks also fails to teach applying an image-based correction to the error in the stored data field using a
